Robert C. Creighton is the managing partner at Farrell Fritz. He concentrates in general corporate practice with a particular emphasis in merger and acquisition transactions and in representing banks in commercial lending matters.

Mr. Creighton counsels businesses in connection with acquisitions, dispositions, mergers, joint ventures and other business combinations, shareholders' agreements, partnership agreements and employment agreements, and matters of corporate law generally. He has also counseled entities in corporate restructurings and in connection with acquiring and disposing of distressed assets.

In addition, Mr. Creighton is knowledgeable in various types of commercial lending transactions, including secured and unsecured commercial financing, leveraged acquisitions, term loans, revolving credits, syndicated facilities and commercial paper and medium term note programs. Mr. Creighton also has significant structured finance experience, and completed numerous cross-border transactions.

Mr. Creighton has experience in the health care industry ranging from advising a regional managed care company in connection with strategic transactions, advising physicians practices in connection with general corporate advice and advising not-for-profit hospital boards in connection with various corporate governance issues. Most recently, Mr. Creighton represented Winthrop University Hospital (now NYU Winthrop) in its affiliation with NYU Langone Health System. He has also represented health care providers, and lenders to health care providers, in connection with various financing transactions.

Mr. Creighton serves on the Boards of Directors of Family Service League, the Long Island Housing Partnership, the Long Island Philharmonic and the Epilepsy Foundation's Long Island Chapter. In 2011, he was elected the Epilepsy Foundation's Secretary. He is also a former member and Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Long Island Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation.

Mr. Creighton was named one of Long Island's Top 40 Rising Stars in Business under 40 by Long Island Business News in January, 2001. In 2012, Mr. Creighton received Long Island Business News' "Leadership in Law" award, which recognizes individuals whose dedication to excellence and leadership, both in the legal profession and in the community, has had a positive impact on Long Island. In 2018, Mr. Creighton was honored with one of Pulse Magazine's "Top Legal Eagles awards".

Upon being admitted to practice, Mr. Creighton became an associate in the Corporate/Banking Group of Rogers & Wells, where he worked in the New York and London offices. Mr. Creighton then joined the Structured Finance Group at Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom in New York.
