Charlotte A. Biblow to Receive Ward Melville Heritage Organization's *Heritage Partner Award

The Ward Melville Heritage Organization (WMHO) will honor Farrell Fritz partner, Charlotte A. Biblow, with the Heritage Partner Award at its 15th Annual Golden Eagle Award Dinner on Friday, June 20 at the Hyatt Regency Wind Watch in Hauppauge. Charlotte and others will be honored for their outstanding achievements in community service. Proceeds from the dinner will benefit the organization's educational programs, WMHO's Youth Corps, and will help fund repairs to historic properties.

Charlotte is a member of the firm's litigation, land use & municipal law departments and heads the firm's environmental law practice group. She has been an active member of the American Heart Association, Long Island Region, since 1993. Charlotte serves on the board of the Long Island Fund for Women and Girls, the Board of Trustees for Sustainable Long Island and on the Board of Directors for the Queensborough Community College Fund, Inc.

The WMHO, a not-for-profit corporation, was founded in 1939 to develop and foster community enrichment through cultural and educational experiences. For more information, please visit www.wmho.org.
