Jenna Muro is a trusts and estates attorney supporting clients in estate planning and estate administration. Working closely with the firm's Trusts & Estates team, Jenna conducts legal research on matters involving wealth transfer and helps analyze the legal considerations involved in selecting appropriate vehicles to achieve clients' goals.

Before joining the firm, Jenna was a Judicial Intern to the Honorable Alexandra D. Murphy of the New York State Supreme Court, Westchester County. In this role, she conducted legal research, drafted decisions, and observed proceedings involving guardianship and lack of capacity, as well as matrimonial matters involving custody, divorce, and civil contempt. Jenna also served as a Legal Extern with a boutique law firm, where she gained additional experience in legal research and the practice of law. Jenna was a summer associate and law clerk at the firm prior to graduating from law school.
