Rodion Lerman is a corporate transactional lawyer representing public and private companies on their corporate transactions and governance matters. Rodion provides informed counsel on mergers and acquisitions (M&A), debt and equity financing, and securities matters to clients across a wide array of industries. Additionally, Rodion drafts and negotiates contracts, prepares corporate governance documents and legal and regulatory disclosures and filings.

Before going into private practice, Rodion founded and ran an entrepreneurial consulting business, providing guidance to businesses on using drones in accordance with Federal Aviation Administration policies concerning unmanned aerial vehicles. Rodion also has prior business experience in finance. Known for his analytical, business-minded thinking and strong multi-tasking skills, Rodion is an asset to clients and colleagues alike.

Just prior to joining Farrell Fritz, Rodion was an Associate at mid-size law firm in New York City where he advised corporate clients in transactional matters.

Rodion is a native Russian speaker and is conversational in Spanish.
