Kathleen M. Brown is a regulatory healthcare attorney who primarily focuses on provider compliance and related regulatory matters. She advises clients on a vast array of state and federal healthcare matters, including Medicare and Medicaid compliance, regulatory audits and investigations, and Stark and Anti-Kickback compliance. She is experienced in all levels of administrative litigation, including Article 78 appeals, as well as nonprofit corporation entity formation and corporate compliance, general healthcare transactions and more.

Ms. Brown is the legislative chair of the Adirondack Women's Bar Association and is a member of the New York State Bar Association, the Albany County Bar Association, and the Saratoga County Bar Association, as well as the American Health Lawyers Association. She is also a member of the Kate Stoneman Honorary Committee at her alma mater, Albany Law School.

Ms. Brown earned her J.D., cum laude, from Albany Law School and her B.S., cum laude, from St. John's University. Prior to joining Farrell Fritz, Ms. Brown was an associate in the Health Department at O'Connell & Aronowitz. She was also a paralegal at the Office of the Medicaid Inspector General, a legal intern at the Office of Counsel to the Governor in Albany, and an administrative coordinator at the NYS Department of Health.

Ms. Brown is a member of the New York State bar and is admitted to practice before the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of New York.
