LOCATION: New York City, Uniondale

Brian P. Corrigan is a partner in Farrell Fritz's estate litigation practice group. Brian focuses on the areas of trusts, estates and fiduciary litigation. He has experience in a variety of Surrogate's Court matters, including will contests, contested accounting, fiduciary removal, fiduciary surcharge, will construction/reformation and discovery proceedings. Brian also represents clients in New York State Supreme Court and federal district court on disputes related to inheritance interests, trusts and estates. He is experienced in contested and uncontested guardianship proceedings in New York State Supreme Court and New York Surrogate's Court.

Prior to joining Farrell Fritz, Brian was a partner at Holland & Knight LLP. He was a member of the firm's litigation and dispute resolution practice, concentrating in estate litigation.

Brian is active in many professional organizations. He is chair of the New York State Bar Association's Trusts and Estates Sections Committee on Practice and Ethics, vice chair of its Committee on Legislation, past chair of the New York County Lawyers' Association Committee on Trusts and Estates, a member of the Nassau County Bar Association's Surrogate's Court Trust & Estate Committee, and a member of the New York City Bar Association. Brian is also a member of the Professional Advisors Council of the Save the Children and the Smile Trains PAC.

Brian earned his Juris Doctorate from Hofstra University School of Law, where he was a Research Editor for the Hofstra Labor & Employment Law Journal. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree, cum laude, from Providence College.

Brian is admitted to practice in New York State. He is also admitted to practice before all State Courts in New York, the U.S. District Court for the Eastern and Southern Districts of New York, the U.S. Tax Court, and the U.S. Court of Federal Claims.

Brian has been selected to the 2019 Best Lawyers in America (Litigation – Trusts & Estates and Trusts & Estates) list and the 2011-2016 New York Metro Super Lawyers Rising Stars lists.
