David M. Curry is a partner in the real estate department. His practice focuses on the representation of both large and small developers in sales and acquisitions of hotel, retail, office, industrial, and other real estate, as well as air rights transactions. He represents landlords and tenants in commercial leasing transactions for industrial, retail, warehouse and office space, as well as lending institutions and borrowers in real estate acquisition and construction financing, both mortgage and mezzanine. Mr. Curry represents owners in construction contract negotiations, as well as borrowers and purchasers in industrial development agency transactions.

Mr. Curry was appointed to the Farmingdale State College Council in 2010. In 2010, he was selected by The Queens Courier as a "Rising Star" award recipient for his outstanding business leadership in Queens. That same year, he served on the Arthritis Foundation's Queens Leaders' Award Reception Committee. He served on the Lindenhurst Village Zoning Board of Appeals 2011 to 2014.

Mr. Curry was selected for the 2013 and 2014 Super Lawyers New York Metro Rising Stars list (Real Estate).

Mr. Curry was recognized in Long Island Business News' "Ones to Watch in Construction" in 2009. He was selected by the Queens Chamber of Commerce to serve as a judge in the 2008 and 2009 Queens Building Awards competitions. In 2012, Mr. Curry received Long Island Business News' "Leadership in Law" award, which recognizes individuals whose dedication to excellence and leadership, both in the legal profession and in the community, has had a positive impact on Long Island.

Mr. Curry is on the Associate Board for Association for a Better Long Island (ABLI).

Mr. Curry received his Juris Doctor degree from St. John's University School of Law in 2003, where he served as a member of the Journal of Legal Commentary. He earned his B.A. in Philosophy, Politics and the Law in 1995 from Binghamton University, and his M.A. in Teaching in 1997 from Towson University.

Prior to joining Farrell Fritz, Mr. Curry was a real estate attorney at Paul, Hastings, Janofsky & Walker LLP in New York City.

Mr. Curry is a member of the American Bar Association and the New York State Bar Association. He is admitted to practice in New York.
