Five Farrell Fritz Attorneys Recognized in Chambers 2022 High Net Worth Rankings

Farrell Fritz is pleased to announce that Estate Litigation partners John \(Jack\) J. Barnosky, Neil V. Carbone, Brian P. Corrigan, John R. Morken, and Eric W. Penzer have been included in the 2022 Chambers High Net Worth rankings for Private Wealth Disputes – New York.

Over decades, these five partners collectively have handled scores of large private wealth disputes of many types in the trial and appellate courts of New York and in the U.S. Tax Court. They have been involved in some of the most complex, high-profile cases in New York.

In addition, Farrell Fritz's Estate Litigation practice group was included in the top tier firms recognized in the Chambers High Net Worth Guide for Private Wealth Disputes in New York. This group offers the skill and expertise required for any estate or trust related proceeding, combining in-depth knowledge of practice and procedure with extensive experience in taxation, as well as an acute understanding of estate planning and administration.
