

JOHN RACANELLI

Farrell Fritz PC

John Racanelli is a partner in the real estate practice group at Farrell Fritz P.C. Racanelli focuses on commercial real estate acquisitions, development, leasing and financing, and on construction. He has extensive hands-on experience, having served previously as both principal and general counsel of a prominent New York real estate development and construction firm.

During his tenure, his company built more than 200 buildings, totaling more than 13 million square feet, and developed more than 1,000 acres of industrial and commercial property.

Racanelli is second vice chair of the Flushing-Willets Point-Corona Local Development Corporation's board of directors. Since 1981, he has served on the board of trustees of Dowling College. Racanelli is also a director on the Council of Governing Boards for New York's Independent Education Trustees. In addition, he is a member of the advisory boards of the Energeia Partnership and the

WHO'S WHO
in Commercial &
Residential Real Estate Law

Long Island Index.

A history of serving the community, Racanelli formerly chaired the LIA's board of directors. He has also served as a director of the Long Island Builders Institute, the Action Committee for Long Island, the Association for a Better Long Island and the Huntington Township Chamber of Commerce, which he chaired. For many years, Racanelli also served as a board member of the Hauppauge Industrial Association.

With more than 85 attorneys, Farrell Fritz provides a full array of legal services. The firm's lawyers are known in the New York business community for their quality service and their deep commitment to the community.

Highly respected for its experience in many areas of law, Farrell Fritz, with offices in Uniondale and Hauppauge, handles legal matters in the areas of bankruptcy and creditors' rights; commercial litigation; construction; corporate and finance; distressed assets; eDiscovery; emerging companies and venture capital; eminent domain; environmental law; estate litigation; health care; labor and employment; land use, municipal and zoning; real estate; tax planning and controversy; tax certiorari and trusts and estates for a variety of corporations, not-for-profit organizations and individuals.