

Kevin P. Mulry

Commercial Litigation

Partner | 516-227-0620 | kmulry@farrellfritz.com

LOCATION: Uniondale

Kevin P. Mulry is a partner in Farrell Fritz's commercial litigation department and also works with our healthcare and labor & employment practice groups. Mr. Mulry has handled all aspects of civil litigation through trial and appeal. He is a frequent contributor to Farrell Fritz's New York Health Law blog.

Prior to joining Farrell Fritz, Mr. Mulry served for fifteen years as an Assistant United States Attorney in the Civil Division of the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of New York. From 2005 through 2010, he was Principal Deputy Chief of the Civil Division, with supervisory responsibility for the office's affirmative civil litigation, including health care fraud, mortgage and government procurement fraud, civil rights, environmental litigation, civil racketeering and labor litigation, civil penalty actions, financial litigation and civil and criminal forfeiture. He was previously Chief of the Long Island Civil Division, supervising the affirmative and defensive work in the Long Island office, and Chief of Employment Litigation, overseeing the employment cases in the district.

Mr. Mulry has extensive trial and litigation experience in all areas of civil litigation. He has tried cases involving employment discrimination, criminal forfeiture, tort, medical malpractice, and environmental law. He has coordinated the national investigation of pharmaceutical health care fraud cases under the False Claims Act, including allegations of off-label marketing, kickbacks and improper billing. He has also argued numerous appeals to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit. Notable cases he has handled include the Benefit Plan Administrators prosecution, a bribery, fraud and obstruction of justice case arising out of the awarding of two multi-million dollar health care contracts by Nassau County; the Hickey and Avellino Carting cases, involving forfeiture and monitorship of carting companies controlled by organized crime; and the defense of the Department of the Interior in litigation with the Shinnecock Indian Nation, which sought federal recognition as an Indian tribe. In 2004, he received the Henry L. Stimson Medal from the Association of the Bar of the City of New York for outstanding service as an Assistant United States Attorney.

Mr. Mulry was a law clerk to the Honorable John E. Sprizzo, United States District Judge for the Southern District of New York. He was associated with Simpson Thacher & Bartlett in New York and Cahn, Wishod & Lamb in Melville. He has also been an Adjunct Professor of Law at St. John's University School of Law.

Mr. Mulry is a member of the Second Circuit Pro Bono Panel and serves on the Board of Directors of New Ground, Inc. He is a member of the Federal Bar Council, the New York State Bar Association, the Association of the Bar for the City of New York, and the Nassau County Bar Association. He is also a member of the International Association of Independent Private Sector Inspectors General (IAIPSIG). He is a former school board president of St. Agnes Cathedral School.

Office

Uniondale
400 RXR Plaza
Uniondale, NY 11556

Practice Areas

Commercial Litigation
Health Law
Labor & Employment

Education

St. John's University
St. John's University School of Law

Mr. Mulry received his Juris Doctor degree, magna cum laude, from St. John's University School of Law in 1987, where he was a member of the Law Review. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree in History, summa cum laude, from St. John's University in 1984. He is admitted to practice in New York, to the United States District Courts for the Eastern and Southern Districts of New York, and to the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit. Mr. Mulry has an AV Preeminent Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Rating.