Frank T. Santoro is partner in our trusts and estates department, concentrating in trusts and estates litigation. He represents clients in New York State Surrogate's Court in probate contests, contested accounting proceedings, discovery proceedings, and other miscellaneous proceedings, and in actions and proceedings in Supreme Court and federal court relating to trusts and estates. He also represents clients in Article 81 Guardianship Proceedings before the Supreme Court.

Mr. Santoro lectures to numerous organizations on various trusts and estates litigation topics. In 2011 and 2012, Mr. Santoro co-presented, "Till Death or Divorce Do Us Part," for the Matrimonial INNS of COURT at the Nassau County Bar Association; to the Nassau and Suffolk Academies of Law; to the New York Financial Planners Association, to St. John's University School of Law and to the Queens Bar Association. He has also lectured to the Nassau and Suffolk County Bar Associations on the subject of contested accounting proceedings in the Surrogate's Court. In 2012 Mr. Santoro was elected to the Queens Botanical Garden Board of Directors. In 2013, Mr. Santoro was selected by The Queens Courier as a "Rising Star" award recipient for his outstanding leadership skills in the legal field, as well as in the community.

Mr. Santoro has co-authored articles relating to trusts and estates litigation and is a contributor to Farrell Fritz's New York Trusts & Estates Litigation blog. He is also the author of Section Five of the Fourteenth Amendment and the Religious Land Use and Institutionalized Persons Act, 24 Whittier Law Review 493 (2001). Mr. Santoro is a member of the New York State Bar Association and the Nassau County Bar Association.

Mr. Santoro graduated in 2001 from Brooklyn Law School. He received his B.A. in History from Binghamton University in 1996.

Mr. Santoro is admitted to practice in the State of New York and the Southern, Eastern, and Western Districts of New York.
