LOCATION: New York City

Peter B. Zlotnick is a partner in the commercial litigation department. He focuses on real estate matters and complex construction defect litigation. His clients include commercial and residential developers, co-op and condominium boards, design professionals, private equity firms and high net worth individuals. He also litigates corporate governance, business torts, bankruptcy and other types of business disputes. In addition, Peter serves as a federal equity receiver in consumer fraud federal equity receiverships for the Federal Trade Commission.

Peter is a Fellow of the Construction Lawyers Society of America (CLSA).

In 2015, Peter was selected to serve as a member of the Fourth cohort of the Berrie Fellows Leadership Program (BFLP) affiliated with the Hartman Institute in Jerusalem and with the Jewish Federation of Northern New Jersey. The highly-selective, eighteen-month Program is dedicated to developing Fellows' leadership and organizational skills to be applied to their community, religious and professional organizations.

Peter was selected to the 2015 New York Super Lawyers list (Securities & Corporate Finance) and the 2016-2017 New York Metro Super Lawyers list (Business Litigation).

Peter is actively involved in the business community, serving on the New York State Bar Association's Business Litigation Committee; on the Association of the Bar of the City of New York's Construction Law Committee and Green Building Law Subcommittee; on the American Bar Association's Litigation Committee; on the Board of Directors of the 82nd Street Partnership, a Business Improvement District (BID) in Jackson Heights-Corona, Queens; as a Member of the Urban Green Council; on the New York County Lawyers' Association; as Co-Chair of the Regulatory Sub-Committee of the National Association of Federal Equity Receivers and Chair of the NAFER Best Practices Committee for 2018. Mr. Zlotnick is also a member of the Amicus Committee and on the Anti-Defamation League Lawyers Division's Legal Policy & Issues Committee. Previously, he was an Advisory Board Member at Make-A-Wish Foundation of the Metro New York Area.

Prior to joining Farrell Fritz, Peter was a Partner and Head of the Litigation Department at Kagan Lubic Lepper Finkelstein & Gold, LLP; a Member at Mintz, Levin, Cohn, Ferris, Glovsky and Popeo, P.C.; a Partner and Founding Chairperson of the Litigation Department at Duval & Stachenfeld LLP; a Partner at Olshan Grundman Frome Rosenzweig & Wolosky LLP and a Litigation Associate at Whitman Breed Abbott & Morgan LLP.

Peter earned his Juris Doctor degree from Yeshiva University's Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law, his Master's in Public Policy from Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government and his Bachelor of Arts degree from Colgate University.

Peter is admitted to practice in New York; the United States District Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York; the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit and the United States District Court for the District of Colorado.
