Domenique Camacho Moran

Farrell Fritz PC

Domenique Camacho Moran is a partner in the commercial litigation department at Farrell Fritz PC in Uniondale.

Moran is a litigator whose practice focuses primarily on employment litigation, including matters arising under Title VII, the Americans with Disability Act, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, the Family and Medical Leave Act, the Fair Labor Standards Act, as well as the NY Human Rights Law. In addition,

Moran has litigated cases involving wrongful discharge, restrictive covenants, trade secrets, the duty of loyalty, defamation and breach of contract claims. She has also represented employers before the National Labor Relations Board in connection with unfair labor practice charges and in connection with discipline, discharge and contract arbitrations.

Moran also prepares and reviews employee handbooks and personnel policies. She negotiates and drafts employee separation agreements and counsels companies on staff reorganizations and reductions-in-force.

She is a frequent lecturer and has significant experience providing training on a myriad of employment-related topics including effective management techniques, human resources fundamentals, litigation avoidance, preventing workplace harassment and discrimination and diversity awareness.

Prior to joining Farrell Fritz, Moran was a shareholder at Littler Mendelson PC. She is a Dean's List graduate of SUNY Stony Brook and a graduate of University of Notre Dame Law School. At Notre Dame she received the Kraft W. Eidman Award presented by the American College of Trial Lawyers for Excellence in Trial Advocacy and was the Lead Notes Editor of the Journal of College and University Law.

Moran is a member of the NYS Bar Association. She is admitted to practice in NYS; the District Courts for the Southern, Eastern and Northern Districts of NY; and the Circuit Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit.

Farrell Fritz's labor and employment law practice group includes counsel on everyday employment issues, preparation and review of handbooks and personnel policies, employment litigation, workplace training and wage and hour compliance.

Founded by three partners in 1967, Farrell Fritz has grown into a full service law firm with more than 80 attorneys in five offices located in Bridgehampton, East Hampton, Melville, NYC and Uniondale.
