Rising Taxes + Falling Market = Trouble

The deadline for filing a tax grievance on commercial properties in Suffolk County is Tuesday, May 20, 2008. Farrell Fritz tax certiorari partners, Arthur K. Feldman and Willets S. Meyer, will present a program on Wednesday, April 9, 2008 regarding the tax grievance process. Hear how local municipalities assess property values and determine property taxes. Learn who should file for a tax grievance, including the indicators that make a commercial property a likely candidate for having its taxes reduced.

The program will begin at 6:00 p.m. at the Southampton Inn (91 Hill Street, Southampton). A light dinner will be served. There is no cost to attend; however, a reservation is required. Please contact Millie Fellingham at (631) 283-0402 or info@southamptonchamber.com to register.

Farrell Fritz, The Southampton Chamber of Commerce and The Southampton Business Alliance look forward to welcoming owners, managers and taxpayers of commercial property at this program.
