Chris Kutner Appointed to the Brooklyn/Queens Council of the New York Chapter of the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation

Congratulations to Farrell Fritz partner, Chris Kutner, on his recent appointment to the Brooklyn/Queens Council of the New York Chapter of the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation. Chris' appointment became effective July 1, 2008. He will serve a two year term.

Chris concentrates his practice in health care law. He worked for approximately eight years within the managed care industry in varying legal compliance and business roles. Chris has earned a national certification from the Healthcare Compliance Certification Board. He is a member of the American Bar Association's Health Law Committee; the New York State Bar Association's Insurance, Commercial Litigation and Health Law Committees; and the Nassau County Bar Association's Health and Hospital Law Committee. He is a former chair of the Suffolk County Bar Association's Health and Hospital Law Committee. In June 2008, Chris was appointed to the board of directors of the American Red Cross in Nassau County.

The Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation is the leading charitable funder and advocate of type 1 (juvenile) diabetes research worldwide. The mission of JDRF is to find a cure for diabetes and its complications through the support of research. To learn more, visit www.jdrf.org.
