Hon. Deborah E. Kooperstein Joins the Alexander Hamilton American Inn of Court Bench

Kudos to Hon. Deborah E. Kooperstein, counsel to Farrell Fritz in East Hampton, who was recently invited to join the bench of the Alexander Hamilton American Inn of Court (Suffolk County), a highly selective organization. Hon. Kooperstein was selected for her achievements and outstanding reputation.

Hon. Kooperstein concentrates her practice in real estate, litigation, matrimonial and trusts and estates law. She is a Certified Drug Treatment Court Judge; a member of the Suffolk County Task Force to Prevent Family Violence; the Town and Village Court liaison with the Office of Court Administration; a member of the District Administrative Judge's Patrick Women in the Courts Committee; and serves on the Board of Trustees of the Bridgehampton Community House. Hon. Kooperstein is a member of numerous county and state bar associations. In 2005, she received a Congressional Recognition Award from Congressman Timothy Bishop for service to the community.

An American Inn of Court ("AIC") is an amalgam of no more than eighty members, including judges, experienced lawyers, law professors, less experienced lawyers and law students serving as a forum at which continuing legal education programs are held. It is the only legal organization in the United States dedicated to the enhancement of civility, ethics and legal excellence. These professionals work together to promote excellence in all areas of law. To learn more visit www.innsocourt.org/inns/ahamilton.
