Chris D. Krimitsos Honored by Touro Law Center as Pro Bono Attorney of the Year

Farrell Fritz corporate associate, Chris D. Krimitsos, was honored as a Pro Bono Attorney of the Year at Touro Law Center's 15th Annual Goods and Services Auction held on April 1, 2009. Chris was one of eight attorneys honored that evening.

Each year, Touro Law Center hosts the Goods and Services Auction to raise money to benefit the Touro Summer Public Interest Fellowship Program, which funds summer stipends for students to work in public interest law firms or non-profit organizations. The auction program also recognizes an Attorney of the Year from top law firms on Long Island. To learn more about Touro Law Center visit <http://www.tourolaw.edu>.

Chris concentrates his practice on general corporate matters, sales and acquisitions of businesses and compliance of SEC reporting companies. He is an integral part of the firm's Pro Bono program, assisting with the organization and corporate governance of not-for-profit corporations, in addition to providing advice in connection with their pursuit of tax-exempt status. Chris also dedicates his time to Action Long Island's Small Business and Economic Development Task Force, on which he serves as a member.
