Farrell Fritz Participates in New Long Island Real Estate Group “LIREG@Work” Program

The Long Island Real Estate Group (LIREG) has instituted a program entitled LIREG@Work through which twelve Hofstra University students will be exposed to various aspects of the real estate industry. They will visit different management or development firms, earning college credit while doing so.

Farrell Fritz tax certiorari partner and LIREG executive board member, Arthur K. Feldman, welcomed to the firm’s Uniondale office Danielle Schoepfer and Michelle Suconick. The students attended a meeting to discuss a possible joint venture and listened to a teleconference regarding a property contract with real estate partner, Peter L. Curry; discussed lease forms with real estate attorneys, Robert E. Sandler, Jodi L. Gladstone and David M. Curry; were advised by the firm’s environmental practice leader, Charlotte A. Biblow, how the environmental and municipal practices relate to real estate transactions on Long Island and internationally; and Arthur K. Feldman spoke about reducing the real estate tax burden on Long Island for property owners and tenants alike.

The Long Island Real Estate Group is an organization of real estate developers, owners and allied trades united to raise funds for charitable real estate related projects on Long Island. To learn more, visit www.lireg.org.
