Ethan A. Kobre Joins Farrell Fritz as a Commercial Litigation Associate

Farrell Fritz welcomes Ethan A. Kobre, a commercial litigator, to the firm.

Prior to joining Farrell Fritz, Mr. Kobre was an associate at Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP, and later at a boutique commercial litigation firm in New York City. He has represented large and small corporations, financial institutions, and non-profit organizations in federal and state trial courts, as well as in arbitrations, mediations, and government and internal investigations. Mr. Kobre has litigated matters involving complex business disputes, employment, intellectual property, and other commercial matters.

Mr. Kobre's experience also includes prior positions as law clerk at the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York (Criminal Division); as legal aide at the Office of the New York State Attorney General (Litigation Bureau); as judicial intern to the Honorable Debra C. Freeman, United States District Court for the Southern District of New York; and as legal intern at the Pro Se Office of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York.

Mr. Kobre, a Kew Gardens Hills resident, earned his Juris Doctor degree from Fordham University School of Law, his Master of Urban Planning, magna cum laude, from New York University, and his Bachelor of Arts degree, magna cum laude, from Touro College.

Mr. Kobre was a Dean William J. Moore scholar and a member of both the Fordham International Law Journal and the Fordham Environmental Law Review.

He is admitted to practice in New York and New Jersey, as well as in the United States District Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York and the District of New Jersey.
