Jordan S. Linn Appointed to the Holocaust Memorial and Tolerance Center of Nassau County's Board of Directors

Farrell Fritz, P.C. is pleased to announce that trusts and estates counsel, Jordan S. Linn, has been appointed to the Holocaust Memorial and Tolerance Center of Nassau County's board of directors.

Mr. Linn, a Merrick, NY resident, concentrates his legal practice in estate planning and estate administration. He focuses upon structuring and implementing sophisticated gift, estate and generation-skipping tax planning techniques and the representation of executors, trustees and beneficiaries in the probate and administration of estates and trusts. Mr. Linn earned his J.D. degree from Hofstra University School of Law and his B.A. from Binghamton University, State University of New York.

The Holocaust Memorial and Tolerance Center teaches the lessons of the Holocaust to combat against intolerance and bullying of all kinds. They promote resistance to prejudice and advocate respect for all through extensive education and community outreach programs. To learn more, visit their website.
