Farrell Fritz Welcomes Stuart Weichsel to its Tax Practice Group

Farrell Fritz is pleased to announce that Stuart Weichsel has joined the firm's tax practice group as counsel.

Mr. Weichsel, a New York City resident, is a corporate tax and estate planning attorney with extensive experience with corporate, partnership and international tax issues, as well as estate and trust planning, drafting, administration and litigation.

Mr. Weichsel has handled tax controversies; advised on a wide range of corporate and real estate transactions and on the formation and operation of tax-exempt entities; established master-feeder hedge fund structures and drafted documents for private equity funds; and worked with swaps and other financial products and derivatives. He is experienced with mortgage-backed securities, other asset-backed securities and executive compensation.

Mr. Weichsel was formerly an Adjunct Professor of Business Law in the Economics Department of Hunter College of the City University of New York.

Mr. Weichsel is admitted to the Bar in the State of New York. He is a member of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

Mr. Weichsel graduated cum laude from the Georgetown University Law Center and clerked on the U.S. Tax Court with the late Chief Judge Theodore Tannenwald. He earned his B.A. in Quantitative Economics from Tufts University.
