Jeffrey P. Rust Appointed to Board of Directors of the Long Island Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation

Jeffrey P. Rust, an associate in the firm's corporate department, has been appointed to the Board of Directors of the Long Island Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation. This is a three-year term. Some of Mr. Rust's board responsibilities include assisting with policy-making, fundraising and advocacy.

Mr. Rust counsels clients in corporate governance, securities regulation and compliance; mergers and acquisitions; employment agreements; health care law; intellectual property matters; shareholder and partnership agreements; and the formation and operation of for-profit and not-for-profit entities.

Mr. Rust earned his Juris Doctor from The University of Akron School of Law, where he served as Editor-in-Chief of the Akron Law Review. He also received his M.B.A. in Finance from The University of Akron College of Business. Mr. Rust is admitted to practice in New York and New Jersey.

The Arthritis Foundation is the only national not-for-profit organization that supports the more than 100 types of arthritis and related conditions with advocacy, programs, services and research. The Foundation's mission is to improve lives through leadership in the prevention, control and cure of arthritis and related diseases.
