Susan F. Rothwell Joins Farrell Fritz as Trusts and Estates Counsel

Susan Rothwell has joined Farrell Fritz as counsel in the trusts and estates department. Ms. Rothwell concentrates her legal practice in estate planning.

Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Rothwell was of counsel at Richard H. Stein LLC in Stamford, CT, where she concentrated in estate planning, including lifetime gift planning, insurance planning and planning for individuals with family-owned businesses. Her estate administration responsibilities included estate and gift tax return preparation and IRS audits. In addition, she was involved with charitable gift planning.

Previously, as a solo practitioner, Ms. Rothwell's practice involved estate planning, drafting wills, living trusts, insurance trusts, establishing foundations and public charities, working with non-citizen U.S. residents and setting up limited liability companies. Ms. Rothwell's earlier legal experience included trusts and estates work at firms in New York, NY.

Ms. Rothwell earned her LL.M. in Taxation in 2001 from New York University School of Law; J.D. in 1991 from Columbia University School of Law; M.B.A. in 1983 from Columbia Graduate School of Business Administration and B.A., magna cum laude, in 1976 from Columbia University, where she was elected to Phi Beta Kappa.
