Bob G. Goldberg Joins Farrell Fritz as Tax Counsel

Farrell Fritz, P.C. welcomes Bob G. Goldberg to its tax department as counsel.

Immediately prior to joining Farrell Fritz, Mr. Goldberg served as tax and ERISA counsel for a leading labor, employment and education law firm. His practice encompassed all aspects of employee benefits, including qualified plans, non-qualified plans, health and welfare benefits and related tax issues for public and private educational institutions. From 2000 to 2006, Mr. Goldberg served as tax and ERISA counsel at an employee benefits law firm, where his practice also focused on deferred compensation.

Mr. Goldberg is a founding partner of a small business law firm that opened in 1991 and concentrated its practice in tax, pension, corporate and real estate for closely held businesses and their principals.

Earlier in his career, Mr. Goldberg held positions as an associate at a business law firm (Mineola, NY); as partner at a business law firm (New York, NY) and as supervising tax specialist at a public accounting firm (New York, NY).

Mr. Goldberg has been an Adjunct Professor of Criminology at Suffolk County Community College since January 2006.

Mr. Goldberg earned his LL.M. in taxation in 1984 from New York University School of Law. He received his Juris Doctor degree in 1980 from St. John's University School of Law and his B.S. in economics, cum laude, from the State University of New York at Albany in 1977.

Mr. Goldberg is a member of the New York State Bar, the Federal District Court (S.D.N.Y.) and the United States Tax Court.
