Charlotte A. Biblow Appointed to
The Queensborough Community College Fund, Inc. Board

Farrell Fritz partner, Charlotte A. Biblow, has been appointed to the Board of The Queensborough Community College Fund (QCC Fund). Her appointment is effective November 2007.

Established in 1975, the QCC Fund's purpose is to provide leadership for the College's fundraising efforts and to oversee the assets in the Fund's portfolio. The Fund prioritizes initiatives that enhance the quality of the educational experience at the College, including scholarships, the Art Gallery, Queensborough's Performing Arts Center (Q-PAC) and the Kupferberg Holocaust Resource Center. To learn more about the QCC Fund, please visit their site at:
http://www.qcc.cuny.edu/Advancement/qcc_fund.asp.

Ms. Biblow is a member of the firm's litigation, land use & municipal law departments and heads the firm's environmental law practice group. She counsels clients about environmental permitting, regulatory compliance and investigation and remediation of environmentally impacted properties, such as brownfields sites, superfund sites and petroleum contamination sites.

Ms. Biblow has been an active board member of the American Heart Association, Long Island Region, since 1993. In 2005, she was awarded the American Heart Association's James W. Dowling Award for outstanding service in advancing the heart program and stimulating public support to reduce disability and death from cardiovascular diseases and stroke. In May 2006, she was elected to the board of the Long Island Fund for Women and Girls. In March 2007, Ms. Biblow was honored by The Queens Courier and Queens Business Today as female "Professional of the Year". In May 2007, Ms. Biblow was honored by Long Island Business News as one of the "Top 50 Most Influential Women in Business".

Ms. Biblow earned her Juris Doctor degree from St. John's University School of Law. She received a Master of Science in Environmental Health Science from Hunter College and a Bachelor of Science degree, cum laude, in Chemistry from the State University of New York at Albany. Prior to practicing law, Ms. Biblow was a doctoral student at Rutgers University in the Department of Environmental Sciences.

Ms. Biblow authors articles for the New York Law Journal (This Week Long Island) Zoning and Land Use column.
