Nina Petraro Appointed to the Valley Stream Central High School District Business Advisory Council

Nina Petraro, an associate in the firm's land use & municipal and tax certiorari departments, has been appointed to the Valley Stream Central High School District Business Advisory Council. She also serves as the Council's Publicity Director.

The Valley Stream Central High School District Business Advisory Council helps to prepare students for a successful entry into the business world. The council is a collaboration among faculty and school administrators supported by business and community leaders. Together, they bring in speakers and provide educational opportunities to inspire students to prepare for, and to learn about, business.

Ms. Petraro also serves on the Long Island Association's workforce development and housing committee and on the Professional Networking Committee of the Sacred Heart Academy Alumnae Association. In December 2006, Ms. Petraro was a volunteer judge at the "We the People" Long Island mock congressional hearing competition for high school students.

Ms. Petraro received her J.D. from St. John's University School of Law in 2006 and her B.A. in Government and Politics, summa cum laude, from St. John's University in 2003.
