Patricia C. Marcin Appointed to the Board of the Huntington Ballet Theatre

Farrell Fritz, P.C. is pleased to announce that Patricia C. Marcin was recently appointed to the board of the Huntington Ballet Theatre. The Huntington Ballet Theatre is a charitable organization promoting cultural arts by producing pre-professional ballets for all children, with an emphasis on bringing the world of ballet to disadvantaged children.

Ms. Marcin is counsel to Farrell Fritz concentrating in estate planning and administration. Her practice includes all phases of the administration of estates, including the analysis and review of estate and fiduciary income tax, administrative and legal issues and the preparation of wills and trusts and other estate planning documents.

Ms. Marcin is co-president of the Cold Spring Harbor Special Education Parent Teachers Association (SEPTA) and is a member of the School Improvement Team (SIT) committee for the Lloyd Harbor School. Ms. Marcin is a parent representative on the Committee for Special Education for the Cold Spring Harbor School District, which reviews and determines the special education services children in the district are to receive.
